

The RMF Presents: The James Wilcox Award: 2011 – 2012 Grant Funding to Honor the ‘Adventurous Spirit of Climbing!!’

If you are dreaming big climbing dreams, please consider applying for:

The 2011/2012 James Wilcox Award.

Sponsored in partnership with The Ragged Mountain Foundation, the Annual Wilcox Award is designed to support small teams tackling big dreams in the great mountains of the world – from New England to Nepal.

Climbs proposed should present a significant technical or personal challenge, Including - but certainly not limited to: a first ascent, repeat ascent, or first alpine style ascent. Awards will be made to climbers whose plans best exemplify the spirit of adventure through modern, technical climbing, with special emphasis placed on ‘leave no trace’ ethics and best style of ascent.

Grants of $500 will be awarded each year to one RMF member / team.

James Wilcox was an outstanding and versatile climber, who strived for excellence in his life, and inspired excellence in others. We honor his achievements through the creation of the James Wilcox Award: A living memorial to Jim’s adventurous spirit and a catalyst for the future adventures of others, on big walls throughout the world.

*Applications accepted from July 1, 2010, through May 30, 2011
NEW THIS YEAR! You may also nominate a qualified candidate.

Please let us know if you are aware of a viable candidate/team who may be hesitant to submit an application on their own behalf.
